RADIO PIONEER IS GONE

The voice of WIZE has been the best known voice to originate from this area. Irving Vermilya was a true pioneer carrying a spark lit by the radio genius Marconi. As holder of the first ham license Mr. Vermilya was known to radio amateurs throughout the world. He probably has more intimate friends who he has never seen than those who knew and valued him in person. Both valued him for his boundless enthusiasm for radio which was his hobby as well as his world. The friendly personality of Mr. Vermilya was transmitted to all parts of the world. He knew famous men of this century, and was well known for many assists to armed services and explorers. The first radio station in this area was started by Mr. Vermilya in New Bedford in 1921 and later he moved the station to Mattapoisett for a period. When the station became WNBH, he became its engineer. Radio in this part of Massachusetts started with Mr. Vermilya and he, as number 1 "ham", certainly contributed all of his life to the history of the medium. There are few originals lefts. Mr. Vermilya was an original, a pioneer, whose life spanned the first transmission to Europe which he witnessed as a boy to the latest marvels of space communications. WIZE signs off after a full and valued career.

DOGS

There is a situation which if allowed to continue may result in tragedy in Mattapoisett. Large dogs roam the streets in increasing numbers and some of these dogs are dangerous. Sunday night, a Great Dane and a Boxer entered a yard 200 feet off Church Street and viciously attacked a small dog chained in the yard. Fortunately, the Cocker under attack was reached in time to prevent his death. He was, however, hurt severely and had deep teeth tears in his neck. Only a leather collar saved this Cocker from being killed. If a small child had been under this same attack, the result could have been tragic. There are many instances where women with dogs on leashes have been attacked in the center of the town.

If, in the future, people are to be able to walk the streets of the town without being armed with clubs some curb must be put on big dogs. The time to think about a problem of this kind is before some child or person is badly hurt.

Along these same lines, it may be a good idea to consider the trash problem. A good percentage of barrels are upset each week by hordes of dogs roaming the streets. All of the money spent on covered trucks to collect rubbish has been completely wasted. Before the trucks can arrive, gangs of dogs have scattered rubbish over streets and yards. It may just seem that dogs outnumber people in Mat-

CONGRESS DID NOTHING?

The critics of Congress this year complain that little was accomplished. They might note this; for every one of the 1,670 hours and 54 minutes Congress met the taxpayer was saved $3,590,00 from the original amount proposed to be spent.

There is an opportunity this year for someone interested in having a foreign student live in their home while the student attends Old Rochester Regional High School. POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

I am a candidate for the office of Selectman for the Town of Mattapoisett. In making this announcement, I would like to be among the first to congratulate Selectman Lester A. Crampton for his completion of 40 years of service to the townspeople. As he retires, he must take pride in the kind of growth that Mattapoisett is enjoying.

I believe that Mattapoisett is one of the most attractive residential towns on this coast. It has sustained this distinction through a period of rapid growth. As a resident of several years, I'd like to help maintain this orderly expansion. We enjoy a fortunate natural location and, by careful direction, we can provide for more residents and still preserve, unspoiled, the character of Mattapoisett.

With this in mind, I would like to offer you my services as your selectman. In all of the business of the town, I will apply the common sense, the thought and the genuine interest in people which I use daily in my work as National Product Manager of Printers' Supplies Division of the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company. I will do my best for you. I request your voting support for Selectman.

Sincerely,
HARRY M. LOCKE, Water Street, Mattapoisett

Richard Steigerwald for fourth.
